

SEASONABLE PRODUCTS PLENTIFUL IN MARKET

Dealers Predict an Abundance of Turkeys for the Thanksgiving Period.

Tilfish Among the Choice Varieties of Marine Contributions—General Range of Prices.

The markets of the city were today well supplied with all the seasonable products for the table and buyers were in hand in numbers. For the first time in many months Camembert cheese from France was on the market this morning. It sold at 40 cents a box. The dealers in dairy products say that it is probable other foreign cheeses will be on the market in a short time and cheese lovers will then be able to obtain their favorite brand.

Turkeys are making their appearance on the poultry benches in increasing quantities and the dealers say there will be no shortage of the supply at the Thanksgiving period, provided the weather is favorable for killing and shipping the fowl. Cold, crisp weather is wanted.

No change is to be noted in egg prices from those that have prevailed for the past three weeks, choice selected eggs selling at 50 cents a dozen. In the meat market few changes are to be noted, and they but small, but all are in favor of the householder.

List of Quotations.

Poultry are selling at 10 to 15 cents a pound. Bluefish are reported scarce and high, and are selling at 20 to 25 cents a pound. Tilfish, the new variety, are also fairly plentiful, and the dealers say are selling at about 15 cents a pound.

Home-grown tomatoes have practically disappeared from the market, and their place has been taken by the hot-house variety, selling at from 15 to 20 cents a pound. Sweet peppers have also become scarce, and are selling at 15 to 20 cents a dozen. Except for these changes, the produce market remains the same as last week.

Fruit dealers report peaches very scarce. The cheaper kinds have disappeared, and those on sale are bringing 25 cents a pan.

Butter shows no change in price, the choice grades selling at 40 cents a pound.

FRESH FISH SCARCE.

Prices Higher Than Noted a Week Ago, Dealers Report.

With the exception of ling, a fish somewhat related to the cod family, fresh fish of all kinds are reported rather scarce on the wholesale market and in many instances higher in price than they were a week ago. The pollack has made its appearance on the market, and is in fair demand. The bulk of the fish on sale this morning at the 11th street wharf market came from the fisheries on the New Jersey coast, though some are coming from the coast in the vicinity of Norfolk.

The auctions this morning were well attended, and prices ranged about as follows: Spanish mackerel, 20 cents a pound; green pike, 10 cents a pound; bluefish, 15 cents a pound; rock, 6 to 10 cents a pound; pollack, 4 to 5 cents a pound; halibut, 12 to 15 cents a pound; sea bass, 8 to 12 cents a pound; black bass, 10 to 15 cents a pound; salmon, 12 to 13 cents a pound; white perch, large, 12 to 15 cents a pound; yellow perch, 12 to 15 cents a pound; carp, 4 to 5 cents a pound; large gray trout, $15 a barrel; small gray trout, $9 to $10 a barrel; croakers and flounders, $12 a barrel; butters, $12 to $13 a barrel, and ling, $2.50 to $3.50 a barrel.

The warm weather has caused a decided fall off in the demand for oysters, but prices have not been affected. This morning Potomac oysters sold at from 45 cents to 70 cents a bushel, and bay oysters at 40 to 50 cents a bushel, and higher, a bushel. There is a good supply of oysters on the market.

YOST DENIES YALE RUMOR.

Wouldn't Break Michigan Contract if He Could, He Says.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., November 12.—Coach Yost, upon his arrival here with the Michigan team, announced yesterday that he would not go to Yale as head coach next season, as has been reported.

"I have a contract with Michigan next season," said Yost, "that I couldn't break if I wanted to and wouldn't break it if I could. This Yale report came to me first when I saw it in the newspapers. You can be sure there is no truth in it."

NATION MAY CONTROL WHOLE FOOD SUPPLY

Germany Desires Equitable Distribution of Supplies to Rich and Poor.

BERLIN, via London, November 12.—The entire food supply of the nation is expected soon to pass under governmental control to insure an equitable distribution of supplies at fair prices among the entire population, rich and poor. Coffee, tea and cocoa were added today to the list of products whose sale will be regulated by the state. The federal council authorized the chancellor to issue regulations covering trade in them. The chancellor also was authorized to establish maximum prices for such wheat and millet, marmalades and honey, vegetables, fruits and sauerkraut. These prices apply to producers. Maximum Prices Fixed.

Local authorities in municipalities of more than 10,000 population are required to fix maximum prices for retailers in those supplies. The authorities in smaller places are empowered to take similar action if they see fit. The chancellor is given authority to set a high limit above which prices may not go.

Bread, potatoes, pork, milk and butter already have been subjected to a maximum price schedule. The consumption of other meats is regulated and limited by so-called "meatless days." Maximum prices for all varieties of meat and fish are believed to be in sight.

INTIMATES COMPULSION IN BRITISH RECRUITING

Earl of Derby Says Necessary
Action Will Be Taken if Young Men Do Not Enlist.

LONDON, November 12.—A strong intimation of compulsion at an early date is contained in a statement by the Earl of Derby, director of recruiting. This statement is made. Lord Derby declares, with the authority of the prime minister. It says:

"If young men medically fit and not indispensable to any business of national importance or any business conducted for the general good of the community do not come forward voluntarily before November 30 the government will after that date take the necessary steps to redeem the pledge made November 2."

On the date referred to Premier As## quith announced in the house of commons if young men did not come forward voluntarily and enlist "other and compulsory means would be taken before married men were called upon to fill their engagement to serve."

Lord Derby adds: "Whether a man is indispensable or not to his business will be decided, not by the man or his employer, but by competent authorities and tribunals, which are being set up to consider such cases."

The minister of munitions, it is officially announced, has appointed Lord Murray of Elbank to act temporarily in the honorary capacity of director of recruiting for munitions work. The appointment is made with the purpose of giving executive effect to the policy of the ministry of munitions with regard to securing the most effective and economic use of munitions factories and the distribution of skilled and unskilled labor, both male and female, among them.

The body of Col. John C. Vance, eighty, was brought to the home of his son, Postmaster Vance, at Clarksburg, W. Va., for interment. He died near Calhoun, Ga., where he and a son Earl operated a plantation.

Wants Her Son Released.

The National Training School for Boys has been directed by Justice Gould of the District Supreme Court to show cause why it should not release from custody Charles E. McWhirt, convicted in the juvenile court and sentenced to the institution during his minority for stealing 10 cents' worth of milk and apples. In her petition for a writ of habeas corpus, filed through Attorney William E. Baff, the boy's mother, Mrs. Mamie McWhirt, alleges that the boy was over seventeen years old when tried for the alleged offense, and that the juvenile court was without jurisdiction to sentence him, because its jurisdiction is limited to children under the age of seventeen years.

About 300,000 Babies Die Before One Year

The census bureau estimates that 300,000 babies died in this country last year before the age of one year, and it is stated that one-half of these deaths were needless if all mothers were strong and infants were breast-fed.

Expectant mothers should strive to increase their strength with the strength-building fats in Scott's Emulsion, which improves the blood, suppresses nervousness, aids the quality of milk and feeds the very life cells.

Physicians prescribe Scott's Emulsion; it is doubly important during nursing. No alcohol. Every drug-gist has it. Insist on Scott's—the white-food medicine. No advanced prices.
